

Reframing Picasso: African Influences

Tester Testudo
IB Art History, 2026

Abstract

This paper examines Picasso's work through the lens of African artistic influence and modern debates on appropriation.

Analysis

African sculptural forms influenced Cubism's geometry. Contemporary perspectives reconsider these influences within colonial contexts.

Conclusion

Picasso's legacy must be viewed alongside the cultural sources that informed it.

Bibliography

Goldwater, R. (1986). Primitivism in Modern Art.
Einstein, C. (2019). African Sculpture.
Rubin, W. (1984). Primitivism in 20th Century Art.